
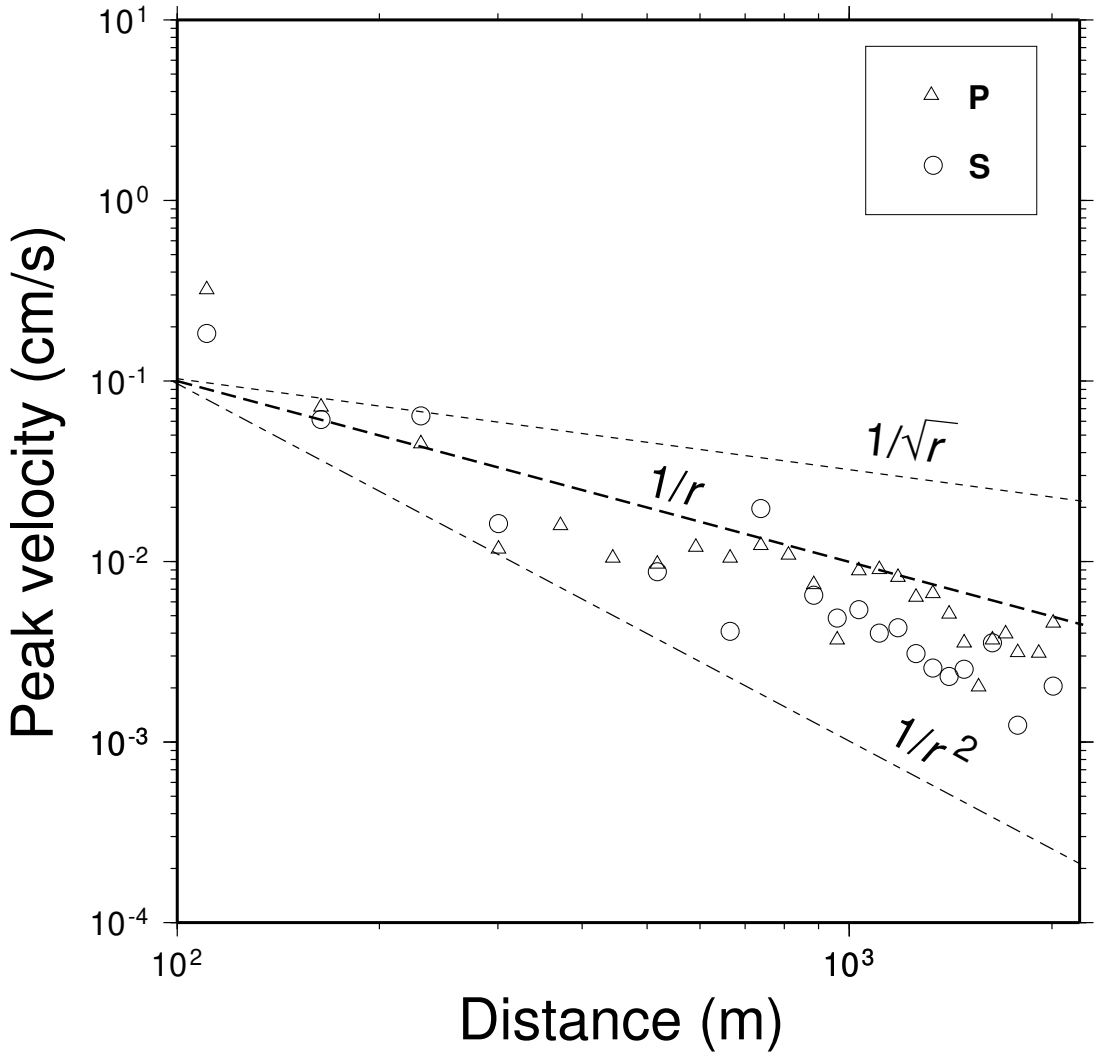

Figure T4. Measured amplitudes of P and S relative to simple theoretical decay curves. Data shown are measured amplitudes of P and S for stations on the 100 line. Triangles represent measured P wave amplitudes and the circles represent measured S amplitudes. Power law decay rates for different decay coefficients are shown as dashed lines in this log-log plot.